Dear Harold,

With the weather being so great last week, both Mary and I got the urge to hit the road and get away from the dirt and pollution around here. Unfortunately, we both started working at Kennywood Park and the strange working hours are going to keep us from going anywhere too far. However, we figured out that we're going to have 1 or 2 days when we're both available to go somewhere before the park starts daily operation, and we thought that if you're going to be home on either of those days we would take a day and drive down to say hello. So if you're going to be home on either May 11 or 12 and wouldn't mind some visitors for one of those days, let me know.

Also, Larry Ford wanted me to ask you if you had read Robert Morrow's Betrayal yet. Larry just got a confirmation from Morrow's publisher saying that he would be in Pittsburgh on, I believe, June 4 and would be willing to do his show. Larry said he would like to have you on at the same time, if you're available, to give your views on Morrow's book and on some of the other ones that have come out lately, especially Hugh McDonald's. He also mentioned that he wanted to get Wecht on sometime and that if you couldn't do the show with Morrow maybe he could work something out to have you on with Wecht.

I'm looking forward to seeing you and Lil again; I have a ton of things to ask you about..

Best,
Karen

Dear Karen, Sorry about the delay in responding. Much procrastination for status call on the FOIA suit yesterday. We're coming along well, thanks to the effected stonewalling. next one 8/12.

6/11 or 12 looks fine. We look forward to your visit.

I'll be glad to do Ford's how but I will not have time to read Morrow's trash. Nor will I waste money on the book.

It is unfortunate those things manage to crawl out from under the rocks where it would be better if they remained.

I say those things on the basis of what I heard of his Time Canal a while back, not from a rerun.

Lease check when you plans firm. I have a medical appointment in Washington about that time. It has not yet been set. However, it will be for a few minutes, not for both days. The only other thing that could interfere is a court development.

Our best, HW 5/6/76
